Hair she is!

Chelsea Clinton slipped into Mizu salon for a blow-out before she hosted Big Sister Association's 60th anniversary party at the Museum of Fine Arts, and no one recognized the former first daughter!

Clinton had booked her appointment under an assistant's name, and stylist Alexander Maud didn't realize he had the former White House rez in his chair until he started chatting up Chels before her blowout.

"She was pretty quiet," said our salon spy. "She kept her face buried in her Kindle pretty much the whole time."

Well, Chels may not be able to fly under the radar much longer, because Bill and Hillary's only child began a new job yesterday as a correspondent for NBC News. She will contribute to the "Making a Difference" series, which showcases volunteerism. Chelsea also holds a position at her father's Clinton Foundation and Clinton Global Initiative while studying to earn her Ph.D. at Oxford. Such an overachiever ...
